Indictments Against Alva Newhouse
Jackson Township Trustee,
Quashed by Judge Sparks

Considerable business was being transacted today in the circuit court, with the major portion of the day being taken up with the jury case of the State against William Sumnam of Raleigh, charged with unlawful selling whiskey.

This morning Judge Sparks sustained the motions to quash the two grand jury indictments against Alva Newhouse, trustee of Jackson township, who was held on a charge of unlawful official negligence and with unlawfully receiving money on a contract.

The defendant filed motions to quash a few weeks ago, and the decision was given this morning, when the court dismissed the two cases.

The case of John B. Simmonds against William H. McCullough was heard this morning and judgment in the sum of $67.38 and costs was rendered in favor of the defendant on a note.

A complaint for replevin was heard this morning in which judgment was found for the plaintiff, Davis A. Ricks, in the suit against the American Security Company, et al., when the defendants defaulted.

Several suits were dismissed today in the circuit court, all being against Birney Piper, et al., a resident of near Milroy.

The divorce suit heard Saturday of John A. Widau against Maude Widau, which was taken under advisement, was decided in favor of the plaintiff, who was granted a divorce upon payment of the costs.

The suits against Birney Piper which were dismissed today, had been filed by the following plaintiffs: John G. Hammond, a complaint on note; W. E. Smith, same; three suits by the Milroy Bank; Pearl Brookbank, on note; J. G. DePrez Company, on a note.

The big issue today attracted considerable attention from the Washington township neighborhood. The prosecuting witness, Raymond Camp, testified that he purchased two-thirds of a quart of corn whiskey from Sumnam, the barber of Raleigh on the evening of November 26.

When the little friends of Santa Claus come to the rescue there is some hope that the grownups also will display more interest and will not permit the annual effort of the Daily Republican and the Salvation Army to fail.

The managers of the fund were very much relieved today when $14.34 was added during the day. But even a higher average than this must be maintained to reach last year's total when more than $800 was contributed.

The Salvation Army kettle made a good showing Monday, and it is hoped that its daily contribution will grow daily. The baskets for Christmas dinner for the poor will be supplied out of the fund, the same as last year, which makes the pull on it especially heavy.

Assault and Surety of Peace Pro-

Wess Woods, living south of Rushville, was arrested on two charges preferred in Justice Stech's court, one being for assault and battery and the other for surety of peace. He pleaded guilty to the assault charge and was fined $1 and costs, and he provided $100 bond for his appearance in the circuit court on the surety of peace charge.

The two charges were preferred by Ollie Woods, his wife, who alleges that he struck her, and threatened her at their home last Sunday.

The Chinese girls wear their hair rolled and the skirts go up and down with the American girls, and the sleeves are short, according to Miss Winnifred Muire, just back from another long stay in China, who addressed the Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon today.

Miss Muire and her sister, Miss Nelle Muire, wore quaint Chinese costumes and Miss Muire also had on display for the edification of the Rotarians, an interesting exhibit of articles made in China. Miss Winnifred Muire, a Rushville woman who formerly taught in the Rushville high school, has spent most of her time in China in recent years.

BE CAREFUL OF FIRES, WARNING

State Fire Marshal in Letter Received Here Calls Attention to Dangers at Christmas

BOTH IN HOMES AND STORES

Little Care, He Declares, Will Not Detract From Pleasure and Enjoyment of Occasion

The annual warning against the dangers of fire during the Christmas holidays has been issued by Newman T. Miller, state fire marshal, calling attention to the necessity of being careful with Christmas decorations in the home and the business house as well.

A copy of the warning urging cautiousness in decorating the Christmas tree and in displaying holiday goods in the stores, has been received by Joe Williamson, chief of the fire department, with the request that it be given as much publicity as possible in an effort to prevent any disastrous fires at the happiest of all seasons. The warning follows:

With the approach of Christmas, I am inclined to call your attention to America's greatest fault—Carelessness. There is no need for a lessening of the holiday spirit, but how many times have these days of pleasure and enjoyment been suddenly changed to one of sadness and grief. How? Carelessness. In the decoration of our homes, the display of goods in our stores and the arrangement of our Christmas tree; let us all join in being more careful and thus secure a full measure of joy and happiness to ourselves and families.

The merchant in his eagerness to display his goods, the Mother in the decoration of her home and the Christmas tree oftentimes forgets to be careful. There is no mystery about preventing a fire, neither is there any spectacular advice to be given, but if each person will join in being careful, many lives will be saved and much property preserved during the coming holiday week.

It is my business to call your attention to this important matter and it is your business to aid in protecting your property and saving your life—this can be done without detracting the least from pleasure and enjoyment of the occasion. Last year, you, the reader of this article, paid your proportionate part of the fire loss of Indiana; you did this whether you had a fire or carried fire insurance or not. The whole loss is

"The Chinese are not all out of style," said Miss Muire, referring to the common American conception of the Chinese. "Neither are they all homely. The young women roll their hair and their dresses go up and down as they do in America. They wear high heel shoes and take American magazines so that they may keep up with the styles."

"America is their ideal. The young people save their money and live for one goal—to come to America and get an education. This is going to help China more than anything else—education and the emancipation of her womanhood."

Miss Muire told of the organization of an American woman's club in Shanghai and how their example was emulated by Chinese who organized and their very first week organized fifteen schools for the poor children of Shanghai.

Miss Muire said that the Japanese influence in China was very bad and that the Japs were tightening

POWERS SIGN THE QUADRUPLE PACT

Four Leading Nations Affix Signatures to Treaty Which Pledges
Them to Keep Peace

IN VAST PACIFIC EXPANSES

Document Now Goes to Respective Governments for Ratification by legislative Bodies

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 13—The four great powers of the world today affixed their signatures to a treaty which scraps the Anglo-Japanese alliance and solemnly pledges all to preserve peace across the vast expanse of the Pacific ocean.

With typical American simplicity the great document, considered one of the most important in the history of the world, was signed in the office of Secretary of State Hughes.

Only the plenipotentiaries of the four powers were present. The pomp and ceremony which usually is attached to such important events was entirely absent.

The treaty now goes to the respective governments for ratifications by legislative bodies and will be put into effect when deposit of such ratifications is made here.

That action will formally cast into the scrap heap, the Anglo-Japanese alliance which this country has long considered a menace.

Secretary of State Hughes, admittedly the dominant figure in the conference, was the first to sign the new pact affixing his signature in behalf of the United States. Other members of the American delegation followed. Then came the stately Balfour and other members of the British delegation. Viviani led the French delegation to the signing table. Admiral Baron Kato and the Japanese delegation were the last to affix their signatures.

The signing of the treaty started at 11:13 and was completed at 11:23. Under the treaty, the powers agree.

To respect the insular possessions of each other in the Pacific and submit controversies to joint conference.

If any power takes aggressive action to confer as to what action should be taken jointly and separately.

To maintain the agreement for ten years and thereafter until any one of the powers cannot sit on 12 months notice.

To make the treaty effective on deposit of ratifications which will automatically terminate the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

None of the delegates seemed to fear for the success of the treaty because the signing started at 13 minutes after 11 o'clock on the thirteenth day of the month.

ANNUAL SESSION HELD TODAY

Treasurer Shows Balance of $391
With $5,631.25 Spent During
Year—1370 Members in County

The annual county meeting of the Rush County Farmers' association was being held today in the auditorium at the Graham Annex school, and delegates were present from each township. The sessions this morning and afternoon were devoted to business interests of the county organization, and the election of officers was to take place before adjournment this afternoon.

The meeting opened shortly after ten o'clock this morning when the delegates sang "America," and following this, the Rev. L. E. Brown offered prayer.

Fred Bell, president of the county association, presided, and told the delegates that the county meeting was called solely for the annual business that was to be transacted, and that there were no speakers employed, nor any entertainment.

Howard Ewbank, secretary, read the minutes of the county meeting held last year, and he also made his report for the year. He stated that he had attended 45 township meetings during the year, and reviewed the work of several of the townships, pointing out that the past year had been a hard one for the farmer to show satisfactory returns for the money he has invested in his business.

He emphasized the importance of the township meetings as being a unit by which it could be used as a clearing house for an oversupply of livestock or other farm products, and also a place for the county agent to keep in touch with conditions of crops, give information concerning the control of pests, comparisons of the cost of the crop and live stock production, seed wheat treating, poultry culling, etc.

Jesse Peters, county treasurer in his report, disclosed the fact that the financial conditions of the organization are on a solid footing, with $6,022.25 collected during the year and with the disbursements amounting to $5,631.25, leaving a balance of $391, which is a better balance than was left on hands last year. His report showed that the organization has 1,370 members in the county.

The auditing committee reported that they had examined the books of the organization, and found them

Will be Formally Opened With Reception And Work

LOCAL DEGREE TEAM INVITED

The new Knights of Pythias building in Milroy will be officially dedicated on Monday, Dec. 14, after being completed on October first at a cost of approximately $8,000, the new building taking the place of the one that was destroyed by fire a year ago last January.

A public reception will be held in the afternoon and at night the rank of Knights will be conferred on several candidates with Ivy Company 37 of Rushville having charge of the work.

The new building is constructed of light brick, with the club rooms on the ground floor and the lodge rooms above. The building is to be used exclusively by the lodge, and adjoining the building, a separate building was erected that is being occupied by the Milroy bank.

The new structure affords an ideal lodge home and surpasses any of its kind in this vicinity. A large delegation of Rushville K. of P's will make the trip to Milroy Monday.

New York, Dec. 13—Opening prices were little changed from the last of Monday. The early sales of Royal Dutch were above 52 Mexican Petroleum was unchanged at 115½. Independent Steels were fractionally higher. Steel common, however was off ¼ at 835-8. Shorts in general electric are still having a hard time of it and the opening was at 142. A few days ago this stock sold ex-dividend and opened on that day at 136½. In other words, the stock has more than recovered the dividend.

Among the rails, New Haven acted the best and all of the early sales were made at 14. Recent firmness of this stock while the other rails were selling off, caused considerable comment. Canadian Pacific acted the best in the dividend payers group.

Among the early features were Houston Oil which made a new high for the year above 82; Republic Steel which ran to 30 up 2½. Chile Copper which was taken in big blocks as high as 15 and a general firmness in the rubber group. Kelly Springfield was the leader in this class and go above 43 before the end of the first hour.

SUSPECTS HELD IN JAIL DELIVERY

Men Answering Description of Tommy O'Connor, Chicago Gunman, and Pals, at Hartford, Wis.

TIPS ALL PROVE FUTILE

Police Chief Fitzmorris Expresses Belief Underworld Leader Will Never be Caught

(By United Press)

Hartford, Wis., Dec. 13—Men answering to the descriptions of Tommy O'Connor, Chicago gunman, and his two pals, who broke jail Sunday were in custody here today. They are being held awaiting the arrival of Chicago police.

Chicago, Dec. 13—"Lucky Tommy" O'Connor, with a price on his head and facing the noose Thursday, was safe in the "port of missing men" today.

Efforts of five thousand Chicago policemen and detectives all over the nation to catch O'Connor who stuck up the Cook county jail with a revolver smuggled into jail in a pork chop sandwich and escaped were futile. Police Chief Fitzmorris stated today he believed O'Connor under world leader would never be captured.

Thousands of tips of whereabouts of the killer and Edward Darrow and Frank Laporte, prisoners who escaped with him, were received today. Although all were run down, rifle squads returned without their quarry.

The gunman was variously reported in many parts of Chicago, Milwaukee, Wis and Hartford, Wis., and other places.

The story of moonshine parties and dope orgies within the county jail was bared by William Fogarty, former trusty at the prison.

Fogarty who was released two days before O'Connor escaped, confessed that he offered O'Connor a gun which had been smuggled into another prisoner in a sandwich. O'Connor refused the gun, still hoping to beat the noose.

Fogarty said he gave the gun to Frank McDermott who hid it in the jail bakery. McDermott, Fogarty believed gave the gun to O'Connor. Fogarty said he wanted O'Connor to go free "as he couldn't stand the thought of a man hanging after he heard Carl Wanderer sing a song to the wife he murdered as the trap was sprung".

Six investigations into conditions at the jail are under way.

Chief of detectives Hughes was attempting to run down the source of a note given him by Edward A. Hanson, Milwaukee. Hanson said five men in an auto gave him the note to deliver to the chief.

It stated: "Chief—Don't send anyone after me. I am innocent. I will be posted by friends and shoot the first man who comes near me".

Attempts to release "Darling Dave" O'Connor, broker and brother of the convicted slayer of a police man, will be made today. The brother is held in connection with the jail break.

Most of the guards who were on duty at the time of the delivery have been suspended.

in perfect condition. Mr. Parkhill, working in the interest of the Near East Relief, spoke briefly at this time to the farmers, urging them to respond to the call for grain, and thanking those who had contributed.

County Agent D. D. Ball, in his report, presented a summary of his work for the year, laying stress on the importance of production, and how his work had been an aid in corn, wheat and hog production, as well as poultry culling and record keeping, boys' and girls' club work, and in the cost of production on the farms.

He also discussed the marketing service and the community welfare service. His report was greatly appreciated by the delegates.

This afternoon the program called for the report of the credentials committee, the resolutions committee, and the nominating committee, and the election of officers was to take place late this afternoon.

F. W. Lightfoot was to give a talk on the Bankers' and Farmers' conference which he attended last week in Indianapolis, and the meeting was to close with a round table discussion on township activities.

WILL PRESENT AN OPERETTA

Christian Sunday School Entertainment Set For December 22

The annual Christmas entertainment of the Main Street Christian Sunday school will be given on Thursday evening, December 22, instead of Christmas night, as originally intended, it was announced today. The entertainment will consist of a short program by the cradle roll and beginners department, followed with a fairy operetta entitled "The Fairy Conspiracy."

The operetta centers about a child who does not believe in fairies, Santa Claus, brownies or any of the make-believes. Each in turn are brought in and the child is finally convinced that there is a land where fairies and men in everything exist. The operetta will be given by the primary department of which Miss Florence Gronier is superintendent, and will be in charge of Mrs. Jess Pugh.

In 1920 the fire loss of Indiana exceeded the entire payment of state taxes by $368,160.00. The fire loss of the United States, during the same period of time, was a sum in excess of $500,000,000.00, which is a greater sum paid out by you and the rest of us than was expended for the maintenance of all the schools of the nation.

I do not mean to leave the impression that all this loss came at Christmas time, but some of it did, and will happen again, if each of us do not strive to be a little more cautious and careful, and for that reason I issue this statement at this time.

A Hundred Million Goats

When Mr. Wilson was president the administration took the attitude that the present generation should pay all of the huge indebtedness incurred as a result of our entry into the world war.

Under Mr. Harding's administration it is proposed that these debts be liquidated within a period of twenty-five years.

In addition the allies owe us about eleven billions of dollars which we may never see again.

The eleven billions must necessarily come from the pockets of the present generation, as it has already vanished.

But why this frantic haste to liquidate our own debt?

Why the insistent attempt to saddle the whole burden upon those who have done the suffering?

Why make this generation both suffer and pay while the next generation will have nothing to do but reap the benefits?

America did not enter the war from choice, or through any benevolent or chivalrous desire to aid England or France when their backs were to the wall in a losing fight.

The government and congress knew that without American aid for the allies Germany would win, and that the next step of a victorious Teutonic army would be to overrun this country or to drive our ships and commerce from the seas.

These are the facts in a few words.

It is therefore plain to anyone of normal intelligence that we fought not only for ourselves, but for the benefit and preservation of generations of Americans yet to come.

Why, then, should we of today assume all of the burdens?

Why should future generations reap the benefits without any of the hardships?

Why not extend this liquidation over a period of fifty or a hundred years, and lighten to some extent the burdens of taxation that are pressing so heavily upon the people of today?

Why make slaves of the people of this generation in order that those of the next may live in greater affluence?

Why make a hundred million people of today the royal goats for those of tomorrow?

Now we are told that the next war will be waged against soldiers and civilians alike, and that the husband in the trenches will be safer than the wife in the kitchen. That ought to stimulate masculine patriotism when the storm breaks.

Wise ones tell us that love comes unbidden, but these are the days when a fat bank account accelerates its arrival.

The braggart makes a big noise until danger comes, and then makes a bigger one in his efforts to depart.

Reluctantly we are coming to the conclusion that the good old fashioned housewife has about ceased to exist. She objects to being termed old fashioned.

No doubt the average preacher would be quite indignant if we were to refer to him as an invaluable aid to the divorce courts. And yet without marriages there can be no divorces.

Making the world safe for democracy sounds good, but safeguarding the interests of humanity in general would be a deal more practical.

A Silent Ceremony

Washington, Ind., Dec. 13—A quiet little wedding in which not a word was spoken took place at ten o'clock here Monday.

Lester Bickel and Miss Effe Rhodes, both deaf and dumb, were married by a Chicago pastor who is also mute.

The marriage was the culmination of a romance which started in the Indiana School for Deaf and Dumb. The couple met the pastor there.

Sign language was used in the ceremony.

Tuberculosis may be prevented by simple, sensible methods. Moreover, it may be cured, if proper measures are applied before the disease has too strong a hold. These two facts have been established by sound medical practice. It is not necessary for Indiana people to go to Arizona, Colorado, California, the Carolinas, or anywhere else for treatment. They may be cured and safeguarded here at home. Fresh air, wholesome food and complete rest are the three best medicines, and Indiana air and food are just as potent as any other elsewhere.

The pity is that the people of Indiana neglect the facts in the case with regard to tuberculosis. In the first place they ignore the disease until it is frequently too late. In the second place, they go to far-away places and spend a great deal of money with high-priced specialists when they might be treated just as efficiently at home. The problem of tuberculosis is to educate the public so that it will know what to do about the white plague. This is the task undertaken by the Indiana Tuberculosis Association. In Indiana 3,151 people died of tuberculosis last year, and there are now about 30,000 active cases.

To reduce the death rate, cure present cases and prevent additional cases, the Indiana Tuberculosis Association is establishing better nursing service, holding regular free clinics throughout the state to discover persons suffering from the disease in its earliest stages and conducting educational campaigns in eighty-five counties. It has established the Modern Health Crusade in sixty counties, with some 125,000 children enlisted to learn the lessons of health. The efforts of the Tuberculosis Association are worthy of support by every citizen of Indiana. The work is carried on by the money obtained from the sale of Christmas Seals every year.

Home Journeys

Touch of China in Capital Hotel
By DAVID L. BLUMENFELD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 29.—There's no need to take a boat from the coast to see China today. All you have to do is to buy a railroad ticket and board your Pullman for Washington. Ask for the Cairo hotel when you get there, and once inside it's doors, you will find yourself in China.

The "Cairo" which is the headquarters of the Chinese delegates here, ought to have been labelled "Peking." Inside the hall is the Information bureau and here Chinese gentlemen sit at desks, long ink brushes stuck in holders by their side, for most of the inner correspondence of the delegation is written in the characters of old China, save when the two thousand character-typewriter is brought into play.

The walls of the Information bureau are lined with pigeon-holed cases, each pigeon-hole bearing docketed files, their outsides facing the room, weird with Chinese hieroglyphics for all the world like the washing packages in a laundry.

Whizz up to the seventh floor in the elevator and you find yourself in a long corridor which smells sweetly of Eastern incense.

Here the delegates have their offices and here, too, the serious work of the delegation is done. All the notices on the walls are printed in Chinese. When a delegate or an official wants his stenographer, he picks up a little red lacquered stick and bangs on a little silver gong. In walks the stenographer—just like that.

Higher up in the hotel are the sleeping quarters of the Chinese

WOULD LOCK MONEY BAGS OF CHAMPION

Slogan at National League Meeting is to Trim Greenback Wings of
New York Giants

TO FIX PRICE ON BUSHERS

Charles Ebbets is Expected to Open
Financial War as Result of Giant Deals

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(By United Press)
New York, Dec. 13.—"Trim the green back wings of the Giants". This slogan is behind the only battle that looms up to rattle the placid waters of the National league at its annual meeting here today. Charles Ebbets, is expected to open the movement to put a lock on the money bags of the worlds champions.

Backed by John Heydler, president of the league Barney Dreyfus and Sam Breadon, it is reported that Ebbets will make an effort to have the league set a maximum price on bush leaguers.

Ebbets has let it be known that he doesn't want the price high either. More moves in the financial war are expected.

Down the river at St. Louis Sam Breadon and Branch Rickey have what is known as the knot hole club. Members of this club all youngsters are admitted free to the card games except on Saturdays Sundays and holidays. They occupy a section of the bleachers that otherwise would be vacant on week days.

Ebbets and Dreyfus, it is understood want the charter of the "knot hole club" revoked.

They don't like the idea of the visiting club not getting a cut out of those admissions. Also they say that the "knot hole club" makes too much noise there by no setting the poise and equilibrium of their temperamental diamond prima donnas in many cases causing them to lose ball games.

"Just let 'em try to keep those 'kids' out of the park" Breadon said today.

Those magnates with a great love for money may instruct Heydler to go to the mat with Judge Landis at the meeting of the advisory committee if he says anything about reducing the size of the worlds series.

ODD FELLOWS MEET STIFF OPPOSITION

Local Independents Will Take on Shelbyville Tonight in First of
3-Game Series

FAIRVIEW AFTER ONE TOO

The Odd Fellows basketball team will meet the stiffest opposition of the season tonight when the Shelbyville Independents will come here for the first of a three game series, and the visiting team is said to be even stronger this year than last, when the locals won two out of three games with them, each contest being won by a margin of a few points. The locals will use their strongest line-up tonight in an effort to win the first game.

A preliminary contest will be played at 7:15 between the Christian church team and the M. E. church team, which is a part of the games that are to be played under the Sunday School league this winter.

Word from Fairview is to the effect that the team of that place is unusually strong this year, having won four straight games, and they have issued a challenge to the Odd Fellows, which will be taken up at once, and a game arranged.

STATE TO HAVE 9 SWIMMING EVENTS

Three Men Responsible for Bringing Meet to Indiana and Putting State on Athletic Map

INDOOR AND OUTDOOR MEETS

Officials Also Are Planning Big Things in Track Athletics, Boxing and Wrestling

By HEZE CLARK
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 13.—Nine national swimming events will be held in Indiana during the year 1922.

They are both indoor and outdoor championships.

Three men are responsible for bringing these events to Indiana and they are largely responsible for putting the state on the athletic map. They also plan big things in track athletics, boxing and wrestling.

These men are Paul R. Jordan, secretary and treasurer of the Indiana A. A. U.; T. F. Murphy, head of the registration committee of the state association of the A. A. U. and J. F. Grant of Culver. To be sure the time of staging the big swimming meets has not been fully decided on but part of them will be held at Indianapolis in the big Broad Ripple pool, that is the outdoor events will be held in the Broad Ripple pool, the indoor national championships will be held at Culver Military academy's big swimming pool.

The indoor events will be the senior plunge for distance open to men athletes, and the junior 100-yard back stroke for women. The outdoor events will be: senior (men) 20 free style; senior (women) 50 yard free style; 150 yard back stroke; junior (men) one mile swim 150 yard back stroke; and junior (women) 220 yard free style; 100 yard back stroke. The senior events are those open to swimmers who have won first places in national events before. The junior events are open only to swimmers who have never won a first place in a national championship event.

The state championship boxing matches this year were held in Indianapolis just before the 500-mile automobile race and were under the auspices of the Indianapolis athletic club. The 1922 boxing championships will probably be held in Indianapolis and both the Indianapolis Athletic club and the Hoosier athletic club have asked the Indiana Amateur Athletic union officials for the privilege of staging the state boxing since championships. There seems to be more interest in amateur boxing since the war than ever before. The Gary Y. M. C. A. has taken a lead in this. Culver Military academy has one of the best boxing instructors in the business, and the cadets sure know the boxing game. The Hoosier Athletic club in Indianapolis has staged some fast boxers recently and some of the best boxers in the country are members of that club. Several good boxers have been developed at Elwood and Marion and some of the colleges are taking up the padded mit game as part of the athletic program at these schools. Notre Dame has however taken a lead among the colleges in developing boxers.

NEW COACH MAY TURN THE TRICK

Nels Morgen Takes Charge of Basketball Squad at The University of Chicago

PROSPECTS ON INCREASE

New Coach Piloted Utah to a Championship Team in 1916 and Chicago Has Material

Chicago, Dec. 13.—With the recent appointment of Nels Norgen as head basketball coach at the University of Chicago, prospects for a title carry a rosy hue.

Norgen, a Maroon graduate, piloted the University of Utah five in 1916 when it won the National A. A. U. championship.

Director Stagg's retirement from basketball coaching was expected by those on the inside at the Midway institution. Handling football and track, and directing the athletic department, with basketball added, was too much for the "Grand Old Man." He suggested Norgen, and was not "razed out" as a result of the poor showing of the team last year.

Though the material does not compare with that left as a heritage to Stagg last season, Coach Norgen has a galaxy of clever performers around whom to construct a winning combination.

Captain Crisler, back guard, is lost as are Bobby Kirkoff and Vollmer, the two forwards of 1920-21.

The holdovers are Captain "Death" Halladay, center, McGuire, running guard, and Stahr, sub forward.

With this nucleus Norgen has only to find a back guard and a mate for the speedy Stahr. That should be comparatively easy from the list of possibilities who have reported for early practice.

One of these posts is almost settled now—that of back guard, which should fall to Johnny Bryan, a member of the 1918 team.

For the other vacant place there are "Chuck" McGuire of football fame, who, however may be shifted to guard to allow Bryan, a faster man, at forward, Strohmeier, Lewis Cox and Frida.

If Milt Romney captain-elect of football, and star of the Wisconsin and Princeton battles, shows expected possibilities at the floor game, Norgen will have a speedy forward to work with Stahr or Bryan.

TWO GAMES THIS WEEK END

Red and Black Play Fairview Friday, Valley Mills Saturday

The red and black tossers of the local high school, are in training this week for two stiff games to be played, when the Fairview high school comes here on Friday night, and the locals take the road on Saturday night to meet Valley Mills on the foreign floor. Fairview has a stiff bunch of players to contend with, but if the locals continue their stride which was set at Carthage last Friday, the visiting team will be equally as easy.

Valley Mills gave the locals a stiff game here early in the season, but Rushville won, and the game Saturday will be a hard one on the strange floor.

Don't buy unknown lenses

Beware of painted lenses

Be sure you buy lenses that pass the test for all round efficiency, as well as legality.

Macbeth and Liberty lenses meet all requirements for distance lighting, ditch lighting and prevention of glare. They are easily installed in five minutes.

Some lawful lenses require a difficult adjustment of lamp and bulb for a special focus. Both Macbeth and Liberty lenses take the normal "No. 1" focus. No tilt of the headlamp is required.

Since paint wears, chips, and washes off, your painted lens soon becomes unlawful. The green in the popular Macbeth Green Visor lens is fused into the glass, and is guaranteed never to chip, wear, wash, or fade.

Our 50 years' experience as makers of scientific glass and government-approved battleship and lighthouse lenses is a quality guarantee.

Stop at your dealer's and get either Liberty or Macbeth lenses today. Under the new state law the demand will be heavy. Don't delay!

"A lens which requires 32 candlepower bulbs destroys a lot of light. Macbeth and Liberty Lenses give five times as much light, with 21 candlepower bulbs—as the State requires. Avoid 32 candlepower bulbs, as they are hard on batteries."

Interest Centers in American Legion
Matches Thursday Night

Much interest is centering in the boxing matches to be given under the auspices of Rush Post No. 150 of the American Legion, according to reports of the advance sale of tickets. There will be three bouts on the bill to be held at the Modern Appliance building Thursday evening at 8.30 o'clock.

The main match of the evening will be for ten rounds and the two preliminaries will be for six and four rounds respectively.

This is the first boxing match staged in Rushville for many years and the members of the post are hoping that the fans here will support it.

AVIATION HAS NO FOOTHOLD IN STATE

Lack of Landing Places and Other
Facilities Prevent The Much Heralded Art of Flying

PROSPECTS ARE IN SIGHT

Indianapolis, Dec. 13.—Aviation has struck an air pocket in Indiana. The much heralded art of flying has never gained a foothold in this state.

It is expected to, however, in the next five years, according to the hopes of the Indiana Society of Automotive Engineers meeting here today to discuss aviation.

According to J. G. Vincent, designer of the Liberty Motor, the following influences have retarded development of flying: Lack of landing fields and other facilities for storage and repair; the more or less prevalent impression of the dangers connected with flying; the lack of comfort for passengers; the unsuitability of the average plane for commercial uses; and the difficulty of obtaining capital because of these reasons.

Landing fields built suitably are expensive, he said. "They should have perpendicular concrete runways so an airplane may take off in four directions. Aviation needs federal aid for this purpose as much as motoring needs federal aid for highways."

The only danger connected with flying, Vincent said, is caused by engine stalling just after rising. The tests applied to the wing truss, fuselage and controls when the plane is made eliminate all other dangers.

Looks as if Cornell had a shade on Lafayette for Eastern football honors. Cornell scored 392 points against 21 for their opponents, while Lafayette's record shows 272 and 26 points. Both teams defeated Pennsylvania, the Cornell score being 41-0 and the Lafayette figures 38-6.

their hold on the country all the time, by seizing the natural resources and holding themselves in readiness to take charge of the whole country. The two best provinces are now known as Japanese provinces, she stated, because they are controlled by the Japs.

The speaker told of one Chinese port being seized by the Japanese during the war which had never been released. The Japs use their port, she asserted, to import their goods free of duty, which enabled them to freeze out Chinese merchants who have to pay duty on all imported goods. It also gives Japan the advantage over all other countries by making it possible to undersell other foreign products.

China now has two governments, she explained, the northern president being bribed to permit Japanese aggression. The southern government, organized at Canton last June, the speaker stated, is in opposition to Japanese invasion. The students and women are the Several piano pupils of Miss Zella Wood of Connersville with the assistance of a few others gave a musical program at the home of Mrs. Arnold Orme of North Morgan street Saturday afternoon that was greatly appreciated. The program was as follows: Christmas Chimes, Aurora Yetta; Ole South, drums and piano, Mildred and John Wood; Dixie Land, Frank and Fern Orme; violin solo, Mildred Wood; Maidens Dream, Lydia Hunter; Mocking Bird, Francis Mattox; reading, Robert Sumpkins; Humoresque, No. 1, Mildred Laffer and Mary Belle Cox; Jackson Park March, James Mull, Frank Orme; Iron Clad, Will Hoff, drums and piano; Hunters Day, trio, Mildred Laffer, Mary Belle Cox and Francis Mattox. At the close of the program dainty refreshments were served in which the color scheme of pink and white was carried out.

At the Main Street Christian church last evening, the members of Coles Orchestra, their wives and families, with the pastor, his wife and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Talkington were the guests of George C. Wyatt and daughter Miss Wanda at one of the finest banquets ever served in the church by the ladies of the Aid Society. The guests numbered about forty and the service, and food was greatly enjoyed, and highly praised by all present. At the close a beautiful bouquet of Chrysanthemums was presented to Mr. Wyatt and daughter by the members of the orchestra in appreciation of their generosity and goodness. After the banquet all of those present to the number of about twenty that were not in the orchestra for their regular weekly practice, were taken to the Princess theatre as the guests of Mr. Wyatt. And everybody pronounced it one of the most enjoyable evenings of their life.

saving power of China, she declared and in them lies the country's destiny. Stanley O. Davis of Cincinnati, Charles Fisher of Indianapolis, Earl H. Richardson of the Cit-Trust Co., Indianapolis, were also guests of the club today.

For the Hostess

Gifts that every woman who entertains will delight in are pictured here and they will be all the more appreciated because they are made by their donor. A set of numbers for card tables is attractive and easy to make. They are cut from white cardboard and have gummed figures in black placed on one side. On this black and white background graceful sprays of gay flowers are painted and the cards are supported by small wire holders.

Fishing For Flivvers
Vincennes, Ind., Dec. 13—
Fishing for flivvers was the sport of farmers living on the Washington-Wheatland road during the recent flood. In places just east of the White river bridge, the water was fully three feet deep.
The bold motorists hopped on the road and "made a dash for it". But the poor drowned autos would stop in the deepest part. Farmers within hailing distance pulled them out and reaped a financial harvest.

What is termed a "poor man's golf club" has been launched on Long Island, but it takes regular money to join the new organization.

MANY TURNED AWAY FROM THE MEETING

Crowd at Farewell For Col. Addie of Salvation Army Packs Court House Assembly Room

The assembly room of the court house was packed and many were turned away last evening, when Col. Addie of the Salvation Army gave his famous address on "Modern Miracles," which was very well received by the audience. An exceptionally good musical program preceded the message. Miss Katherine Wamsley rendered a beautiful solo entitled "Silent Night." A quartette also gave a selection and Mrs. Moore sang. Sam Trabue had charge of the program and the Rev. C. S. Black, pastor of the St. Paul's M. E. church led in prayer. Captain Westbrook who is assisting in the Salvation Army meetings, sang, and played a number of selections on his banjo.

A collection was taken at this meeting which will help defray the expense of the special meeting being conducted during the past week. Capt. Westbrook will remain in this city and will conduct revival meetings at the Salvation Army church the remainder of the week, commencing tomorrow night.

BRYAN FINDS A NEW QUESTION

Four Power Agreement Covering Islands of Pacific, Raises Issue Similar to Treaty

MORAL OBLIGATION INVOLVED

Either of The 4 High Powers Must Consult With Each Other When Necessities Arise

By WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

The four power agreement covering the islands of the Pacific raises a question which was not suggested by the preliminary announcements—a question not unlike that which prevented the ratification of the Versailles treaty by the U. S. Senate.

Article ten was objected to because it created a moral obligation which was valuable only in proportion as it suspended the constitution of the U. S. by depriving congress of its freedom of action when the time for action arrived.

Article 2, is open to the same objection, if it can be construed as requiring the United States to join any action decided upon.

"In case the rights of either of the four high contracting parties are threatened by the aggressive action of any other power the contracting parties shall communicate with one another fully and frankly in order to arrive at an understanding as to the most efficient measures to be taken jointly and separately to meet the exigencies of the particular situation."

What do the contracting parties mean?

"Jointly and separately" would seem to imply an obligation. If it were jointly or separately it might be construed as permitting each nation to decide its own course. But why leave doubt as to the meaning. Each one of the thirty arbitration treaties to which reference was made in the advance notices regarding this agreement contains a reservation explicitly stating that the parties can act independently at the conclusion of the investigation. As the delegates understand the terms of the thirty treaties, a failure to include this plainly expressed reservation would indicate that the contracting parties do not intend any such reservation of independence.

In other words the conference seems to have borrowed from the League of Nations covenant the one provision that did most to prevent ratification of the Versailles treaty.

Of course, this agreement is between four powers only while the League of Nations was expected to include all the nations and the four power agreement only relates to the islands in the Pacific while the covenant of the League of Nations covered the possessions of all the nations, but the principle is the same, viz; should the United States enter into an agreement by the terms of which it commits its future action to the determination of other nations so that it must choose between a suspension of its constitution and a breach of faith?

TAGGART OUT OF A JOB

Indianapolis, Dec. 13—Tom Taggart, former United States senator and big boss of the democratic party, was out of a job today. For twenty-one years he has listed his occupation as head of the French Lick Springs Hotel. But his son, Thoson, Jr., got his job at a meeting of the directors of the hotel company. The elder Taggart said he will not become inactive, but will "knock around a little".

PLAN TO CRUSH PACT OPPOSITION

President Will Offer Senate Alternative of 4-Power Agreement or Anglo-Japanese Alliance

MOVES TO CHECKMATE IT

Administration Has Jump on Opponents And Intends to Keep it—Acceptance is Essential

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
Washington, Dec. 13.—President Harding and his chief lieutenants have complete plans for crushing senate opposition to the Pacific treaty between the United States, Britain, France and Japan. They will offer the Senate the alternative of the four power treaty, which makes it safe to disarm or a continuance of the Anglo-Japanese alliance which makes it unsafe for the United States to disarm.

Harding's first move to checkmate Senate opposition was his appointment of Senators Lodge and Underwood to the American delegation in the arms conference. The second was selection of Senator Lodge, chairman of the Senate Foreign relations committee, to present the treaty to the conference and make a speech about it.

Lodge's speech was made to the Senate quite as much as to the conference and its guests. He opened the ratification fight before any of his Senate colleagues could voice a criticism.

Administration officials today said they "had the jump" on the opposition and intended to keep it. Harding, Hughes and Lodge all believe that Senators who fight the treaty will sign their own political death warrants. For as one official pointed out today, the treaty is an essential to the success of the arms conference. It would be regarded here as a calamity if the Hughes program of naval armament limitation were to go through and the Anglo-Japanese alliance at the same time remain in force.

America regards that alliance as a menace. The new treaty converts it into a bulwark of peace, the administration feels. One high official predicted that Senator Borah—who early today had not publicly commented on the treaty—would not lead a "bitter end" fight on this treaty as he did against the Wilson league.

"Borah" said this official "is too wise for that. This treaty is something of a joke on him, but Borah has a sense of humor".

THREE MORE TREATIES WILL BE CONSIDERED

Arms Conference Indicates That These May be in Addition to The Quadruple Agreement

INCLUDE FIVE POWER PACT

Washington, Dec. 13.—At least three more treaties, in addition to the quadruple agreement, will be framed by the arms conference or as the result of its deliberations, it was indicated today. These are:

1—A five power pact with its ten year naval holiday, embodying the Hughes limitation of naval armament program and in which Japan will formally accept the sixty per cent capital ship ratio. The signatory nations will be the U. S. Great Britain, Japan France and Italy. Into this treaty also may be written the agreement to limit Pacific island fortifications.

2—A nine power treaty embodying the agreements reached on China and the Far East. Into this will be written the expected settlement of the Shantung question. This will be signed by the U. S. Great Britain, Japan, France, Italy, The Netherlands, Belgium and Portugal.

Its drafting already has been started.

3—The convention between the United States and Japan on Yap and other mandate islands.

All these pacts the administration will submit to the senate for approval, it is understood.

INSANITY WILL BE HIS PLEA

Defendant in Los Angeles Murder Case Prepares Defense

Los Angeles, Dec. 13.—Arthur C. Burch, on trial charged with the midnight murder of John Belton Kennedy today prepared to bring forward his insanity defense.

The prosecution handled by District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine, has endeavored to link Burch with the killing of Kennedy by many strands of circumstantial evidence.

The state, hearing that Burch is marshalling an array of alienists to prove he was insane when it is alleged he killed Kennedy at the instigation of beautiful Madalynne Obenchain, has issued a subpoena for Dr. Thomas J. Orbison who has already examined Burch. He says Burch is perfectly sane and that his only irrationality is "unusual egotism".

WILL PRESENT AN OPERETTA

Christian Sunday School Entertainment Set For December 22

The annual Christmas entertainment of the Main Street Christian Sunday school will be given on Thursday evening, December 22, instead of Christmas night, as originally intended, it was announced today. The entertainment will consist of a short program by the cradle roll and beginners department, followed with a fairy operetta entitled "The Fairy Conspiracy."

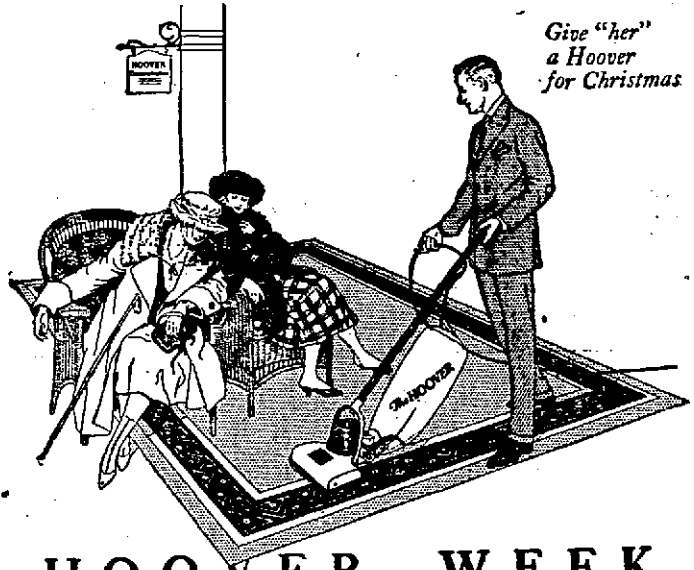

The operetta centers about a child who does not believe in fairies, Santa Claus, brownies or any of the make-believes. Each in turn are brought in and the child is finally convinced that there is a land where fairies and men in everything exist. The operetta will be given by the primary department of which Miss Florene Fronier is superintendent, and will be in charge of Mrs. Jess Pugh.

We cordially invite you, entirely without obligation, to see this efficient cleaner gently beat out from rugs all nap-wearing, embedded grit, as it electrically sweeps up all clinging litter, crests crushed and matted nap, freshens colors, and thoroughly suction cleans.

added to the overhead and whenever you buy, whatever you buy, a portion of this loss is added to what is commonly called the load.

In 1920 the fire loss of Indiana exceeded the entire payment of state taxes by $368,160.00. The fire loss of the United States, during the same period of time, was a sum in excess of $500,000,000.00, which is a greater sum paid out by you and the rest of us than was expended for the maintenance of all the schools of the nation.

I do not mean to leave the impression that all this loss came at Christmas time, but some of it did, and will happen again, if each of us do not strive to be a little more cautious and careful, and for that reason I issue this statement at this time.

The speaker told of one Chinese port being seized by the Japanese during the war which had never been released. The Japs use their port, she asserted, to import their goods free of duty, which enabled them to freeze out Chinese merchants who have to pay duty on all imported goods. It also gives Japan the advantage over all other countries by making it possible to undersell other foreign products.

China now has two governments, she explained, the northern president being bribed to permit Japanese aggression. The southern government, organized at Canton last June, the speaker stated, is in opposition to Japanese invasion. The students and women are the

REVIVAL TO BE CONTINUED

The assembly room of the court house was packed and many were turned away last evening, when Col. Addie of the Salvation Army gave his famous address on "Modern Miracles," which was very well received by the audience. An exceptionally good musical program preceded the message. Miss Katherine Wamsley rendered a beautiful solo entitled "Silent Night." A quartette also gave a selection and Mrs. Moore sang. Sam Trabue had charge of the program and the Rev. C. S. Black, pastor of the St. Paul's M. E. church led in prayer. Captain Westbrook who is assisting in the Salvation Army meetings, sang, and played a number of selections on his banjo.

A collection was taken at this meeting which will help defray the expense of the special meeting being conducted during the past week. Capt. Westbrook will remain in this city and will conduct revival meetings at the Salvation Army church the remainder of the week, commencing tomorrow night.

BRYAN FINDS A NEW QUESTION

MORAL OBLIGATION INVOLVED

Either of The 4 High Powers Must Consult With Each Other When Necessities Arise

By WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

The four power agreement covering the islands of the Pacific raises a question which was not suggested by the preliminary announcements—a question not unlike that which prevented the ratification of the Versailles treaty by the U. S. Senate.

Article ten was objected to because it created a moral obligation which was valuable only in proportion as it suspended the constitution of the U. S. by depriving congress of its freedom of action when the time for action arrived.

Article 2, is open to the same objection, if it can be construed as requiring the United States to join any action decided upon.

"In case the rights of either of the four high contracting parties are threatened by the aggressive action of any other power the contracting parties shall communicate with one another fully and frankly in order to arrive at an understanding as to the most efficient measures to be taken jointly and separately to meet the exigencies of the particular situation."

What do the contracting parties mean?

"Jointly and separately" would seem to imply an obligation. If it were jointly or separately it might be construed as permitting each nation to decide its own course. But why leave doubt as to the meaning. Each one of the thirty arbitration treaties to which reference was made in the advance notices regarding this agreement contains a reservation explicitly stating that the parties can act independently at the conclusion of the investigation. As the delegates understand the terms of the thirty treaties, a failure to include this plainly expressed reservation would indicate that the contracting parties do not intend any such reservation of independence.

In other words the conference seems to have borrowed from the League of Nations covenant the one provision that did most to prevent ratification of the Versailles treaty.

Of course, this agreement is between four powers only while the League of Nations was expected to include all the nations and the four power agreement only relates to the islands in the Pacific while the covenant of the League of Nations covered the possessions of all the nations, but the principle is the same, viz: should the United States enter into an agreement by the terms of which it commits its future action to the determination of other nations so that it must choose between a suspension of its constitution and a breach of faith?

PLAN TO CRUSH PACT OPPOSITION

President Will Offer Senate Alternative of 4-Power Agreement or Anglo-Japanese Alliance

MOVES TO CHECKMATE IT

Administration Has Jump on Opponents And Intends to Keep it—Acceptance is Essential

By LAWRENCE MARTIN

Washington, Dec. 13.—President Harding and his chief lieutenants have complete plans for crushing senate opposition to the Pacific treaty between the United States, Britain, France and Japan. They will offer the Senate the alternative of the four power treaty, which makes it safe to disarm or a continuance of the Anglo-Japanese alliance which makes it unsafe for the United States to disarm.

Harding's first move to checkmate Senate opposition was his appointment of Senators Lodge and Underwood to the American delegation in the arms conference. The second was selection of Senator Lodge, chairman of the Senate Foreign relations committee, to present the treaty to the conference and make a speech about it.

Lodge's speech was made to the Senate quite as much as to the conference and its guests. He opened the ratification fight before any of his Senate colleagues could voice a criticism.

Administration officials today said they "had the jump" on the opposition and intended to keep it. Harding, Hughes and Lodge all believe that Senators who fight the treaty will sign their own political death warrants. For as one official pointed out today, the treaty is an essential to the success of the arms conference. It would be regarded here as a calamity if the Hughes program of naval armament limitation were to go through and the Anglo-Japanese alliance at the same time remain in force.

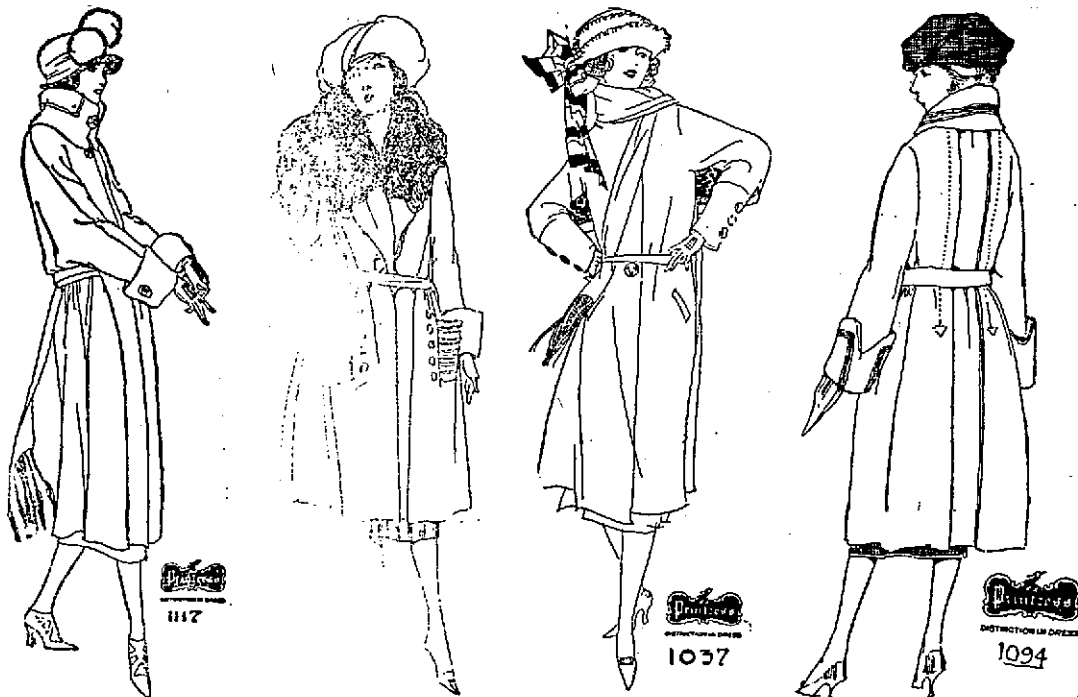

America regards that alliance as a menace. The new treaty converts it into a bulwark of peace, the administration feels. One high official predicted that Senator Borah—who early today had not publicly commented on the treaty—would not lead a "bitter end" fight on this treaty as he did against the Wilson league.

"Borah" said this official "is too wise for that. This treaty is something of a joke on him, but Borah has a sense of humor".

THREE MORE TREATIES WILL BE CONSIDERED

Arms Conference Indicates That These May be in Addition to The Quadruple Agreement

INCLUDE FIVE POWER PACT

Washington, Dec. 13.—At least three more treaties, in addition to the quadruple agreement, will be framed by the arms conference or as the result of its deliberations, it was indicated today. These are:

1—A five power pact with its ten year naval holiday, embodying the Hughes limitation of naval armament program and in which Japan will formally accept the sixty per cent capital ship ratio. The signatory nations will be the U. S. Great Britain, Japan France and Italy. Into this treaty also may be written the agreement to limit Pacific island fortifications.

2—A nine power treaty embodying the agreements reached on China and the Far East. Into this will be written the expected settlement of the Shantung question. This will be signed by the U. S. Great Britain, Japan, France, Italy, The Netherlands, Belgium and Portugal. Its drafting already has been started.

3—The convention between the United States and Japan on Yap and other mandate islands.

All these pacts the administration will submit to the senate for approval, it is understood.

INSANITY WILL BE HIS PLEA

Defendant in Los Angeles Murder Case Prepares Defense

Los Angeles, Dec. 13.—Arthur C. Burch, on trial charged with the midnight murder of John Belton Kennedy today prepared to bring forward his insanity defense.

The prosecution handled by District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine, has endeavored to link Burch with the killing of Kennedy by many strands of circumstantial evidence.

The state, hearing that Burch is marshalling an array of alienists to prove he was insane when it is alleged he killed Kennedy at the instigation of beautiful Madalynne Obenchain, has issued a subpoena for Dr. Thomas J. Orison who has already examined Burch. He says Burch is perfectly sane and that his only irrationality is "unusual egotism".
